Editorial Correspondence.

PHILADELPHIA, September 20th, 1905.

I came to town this morning in company with a gentle but persistent rainfall, and it has pestered me pretty much all day.

You know Philadelphia is often called the "Cradle of American Liberty," and well it may be, for here was made the first American Flag, here was held the first Continental Congress, here the Declaration of Independence was drafted by Jefferson, and here it was signed and read to the world, and here is the identical bell that "proclaimed Liberty throughout the land!" Best of all, with the exception of the house in which Mr. Jefferson wrote his immortal document, every site where these events occurred is carefully preserved.

Speaking of old things in Philadelphia, I notice that the papers out West have been giving some space to St. Peter's Church, at Third and Pine, which was built in 1761, and is consequently 144 years to the good. Now, when St. Peter's was only 102 years old, it was my daily custom to look out from my window upon its stately spire and upon the many monuments that faced my home, notably that of Commodore STEPHEN DECATUR; but I never thought of going into raptures over the old pile or its environments, ancient and honorable as they undoubtedly are.

As the quest of "old things" appears to be in order, I loaded up this afternoon and took a junket to the "Old Swedes Church," in the Southwark district of years ago. It was erected in 1700, and stands today just as the builders left it, but with a harvest of graves around and about it. I jotted down the inscriptions on a few of the more ancient headstones, which are remarkably well preserved considering age. The stones are of a dark, slaty composition. If they had been marble, the elements would have claimed them long ago.

I am trusting JACK ORR to do the best he can with ordinary type to convey an idea of the quaint lettering—

The first is that of the then Minister's infant son—

HERE LYETH
THE BODY OF
PETER T. HESS
SON OF ANDREAS
SANDEE MINISTER OF THIS CHVRCH
WHO DIED
APRIL YE 21 AD
1708, AGED 2
YEARS & 7 Months

A little to the right of this was another—

HERE LYETH THE BODY OF MARY THE WIFE OF ANDREW
ROBESON WHO DYED
NOV YE 12—1716
AGED 50 YEARS

The spelling of the next is somewhat modernized—

HERE
LIETH Y BODY OF NELL S.
LAIGKAN
WHO DIED DEC
Y 4th 1721
AGED 55
Years

She soon had a neighbor—

HERE LIETH
Y BODY OF WILLIAM
WILLIAMSON
WHO DIED DEC
Y 23 1721
AGED 42
YEARS

One more will suffice—

Here Lyeth ye Body of
ERICK LESTENBERG
Who Dyed ye 8th of Jan
1726 Aged 65 Years

The opposite side of this stone breaks into poetry, not much better than the doggerel that characterizes latter-day postmortem rot—

My Class is Run My Work is done
And I lie Under Ground
Entombed in Clay until ye day
Theat ye Trumpet Sound.

If there are older legible headstones than these in America, I haven't heard of them.

Coming closer to home, I noticed within a few yards of these graves a substantial stone to "Charles Graff Douglass, died at Louisville, Ky., May, 1854, in 41st year"—showing that Kentucky's name may be found always and in unexpected places.

But I've given you enough back number history for one day.

The manufacturer of this flour writes me under date of August 3d as follows: "If you were pleased with perfection last year, you will be more than satisfied with it now. We thought we had good wheat last season, but our wheat this season is the finest we have had for years." For a limited time I am going to sell this FINE FLOUR at the extremely low price of down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is that marvelous, curative extract, or natural wine, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful, strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the womb muscles to pull the womb up into place. It is a sure and permanent cure for all female complaints.

Put aside all timidity and write us freely and frankly, in strictest confidence, telling us all your symptoms and troubles. We will send free advice on plain, sealed envelope, how to cure them. Address: Ladies' Advisory Dept., The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

in my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Groves, Mo., "also in my right and left sides, and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui, I feel like a new woman, and do not suffer as I did. It is the best medicine I ever had in my house."

A VALUABLE BULL

Means & Everett's Purchase to Head Kentucky Herd

The following clipping is taken from The Jersey Bulletin—

FOX'S DISTINCTION TO HEAD KENTUCKY HERD.

Mr. T. S. Cooper, the well known importer of Coopersburg, Pa., before he went to the island, shipped to Messrs. Means & Everett, Maysville, Ky., the young bull Fox's Distinction 69879, and has received the following from Mr. J. C. Everett—

"Fox's Distinction, bought from Harry Jenkins, arrived all right and in good order—a handsome fellow, and we are very proud of him. We shall expect great things from him, and you can look out for a roosting place for us at your next sale."

The bull Fox's Distinction has 50% Flying Fox blood, 25% Agatha, 12% Golden Lad 24, the other 12% being of the highly commended cow Distinction, daughter of Rosa's Welcome 3d, a famous sire whose splendid daughter, Beauty of Hebron, is the Rockefeller herd, had many admirers. Messrs. Means & Everett are fortunate in getting so well bred a bull and so good an individual. Mr. Cooper says he should prove an excellent sire, and there seems no doubt that he will.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock a. m.

ACTING AS ARBITER

Mayor Stallcup Settles Difference of Opinion in Short Order

As a pacifier, the Portsmouth Peace Commission is not in it with Mayor Stallcup when it comes to adjusting differences.

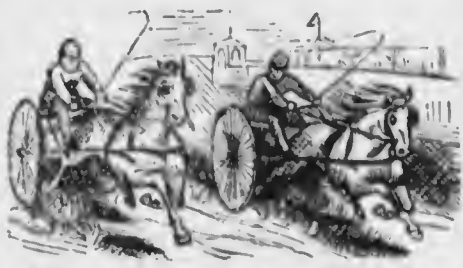

For the past several days there has been a war cloud hanging over the heads of three East End coal men in regard to riparian rights. Yesterday His Honor, in company with Councilman Dersch, visited the seat of war for the purpose of pacifying the belligerents, and right well did he accomplish his end.

The Mayor's reputation for honesty and fairness in all things stood him well in hand, for it did not take twenty minutes to adjust matters to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

The parley wound up with a water-melon treat, and the pipe of peace passed around, the clouds of war rolled away and once again peace reigned, all was "lovely and the goose hung high," and all owing to the suavity of the People's Mayor.

A Worthy Young Lad Wants to Buy an Artificial Limb

Master John D. Becraft, a sprightly lad of Aberdeen, lost his right leg by bloodpoison some time ago, and is now trying to secure enough money to buy an artificial one.

He is a manly little fellow, worthy of assistance, and his appeal should meet hearty response. A trifle from each will accomplish the result.

Donations may be left at The Ledger Office, and all sums, however small, will be gratefully accepted.

A trestle has been erected across the head of Kentucky sbnte of the Ohio falls at Louisville, on which a railroad has been built, preparatory to the building of a portable steel dam at that point.

The people are beginning to find out that they can secure more pleasure and recreation in their vacations by taking berths on a steamboat, viewing the picturesque scenery and enjoying the fresh air, than traveling on the train to some large city and wearing themselves out seeing the sights. The past season has especially been a great summer for newly-wedded couples to enjoy their honeymoons on a steamboat.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
